

PRESS RELEASE

‘Fire For Light’ by Silver Moon

Available on all platforms January 24th.

‘Fire for Light’ is the new single from Irish Indie duo Silver Moon... their first release of the New Year.

Vocalist Aidan Casserly delivers a passionate performance once again through his poetic lyrics, with Mike Wilson on music and production duties.

A beautifully constructed indie-synth pop record. ‘Fire for Light’ is no exception to the duo’s signature style of theatre and ‘cinematic head noddors’. It’s a story of romance, of the sea, of love and of loss.

There is a wonderful black and white video animation to accompany Fire for Light which you can watch here: <https://youtu.be/urkXqIfJHZY>

Last year was a busy time for the boys with the release of debut album ‘Empty Rooms’ and their follow-up EP ‘All The Stars’, getting critical acclaim and their War Child single release ‘A Soldier’s House’ grabbing the attention of audiences all over the world.

2022 is set to be an exciting year with a new album in production and live shows planned - watch this space!
